Stone painting

Painting on stone can be used as a creative and social way to learn about coastal culture, traditions in one's own local community and nature.

It is a activity that anyone can achieve without experience. Which makes it an inclusive and social activity.

Materials:

- Stone.
- Akrylic painting.
- Paintbruch in different sizes.

Tip:

- For inspiration you can find books with pictures from the nature around you or other trad.
- To make the painting dry quickly use a hairdryer.
